Welcome to our Autumn Newsletter.

We have been very busy this Summer fundraising and socialising and we hope you have had the opportunity to attend some of the marvelous events put on by both our Hunt & Hunt Week Committee.

Despite rather dull weather through July to September, we fared better than some with lots of dry days, and the elements were very kind to us for most of our social calendar.

Whether you enjoyed the terrier racing; Lunch on the Lawn; Hunter Trials; Tea at Trevayne; Family Frolicking at the Quay; the Country House Fayre; Twmpath, stretching your legs on the Bike Ride, to name but a few, we are sure you will agree the Summer has been a lot of fun.

We hope this Season will also be very enjoyable. The dates for our Autumn events are listed on the back of this Newsletter so please put them all in your diary. In particular please keep Saturday November 19th free for the 2011 Hunt Ball at De Valence, Tenby. It is shaping up to be yet another night to remember with dancing to the band, The Numbers Racket. As tickets are limited please book your table as soon as the invite arrives.

As we enter October, and the nights draw in, Summer seems well and truly behind us, despite it's best efforts to cling on into September. The mornings are already becoming crisper (and darker!) & we have at last started Autumn hunting.

It is important to remember, particularly for those who haven't already joined us, to phone Hugh Harrison-

Allen or Simon Jones for details of the meet when planning to come along.

Saturday 8th October sees us all down at Cresswell Quay for our annual Hunt Breakfast. This is another important date for your diary as not only do you get to enjoy a full cooked breakfast, but it also signifies the start of paying field money for the Season.

Opening Meet will be on Saturday 5th November this Season, at Cresselly, & we would like to remind everyone subscriptions are due by then. If you have any questions re subs, please speak to Hon Secretary, Mrs Di Clements

There is just enough room for us to wish you all a very good Season and to thank you for joining us.

See you there!
